Start the holiday season with a visit to America's first grand resort - Newport. Experience Newport's Gilded Age during its most spectacular time when the mansions are adorned with elaborate décor and glittering lights. You will tour the inside of two of the more exquisite homes – the Breakers and Marble House and see all the homes along Bellevue Ave. There will be time to shop for Christmas gifts and souvenirs.

Itinerary

Tuesday, November 29

Get in the holiday spirit this morning as you depart from Cedar Knolls at 8:30 am. Upon your arrival in Newport, you will have some free time to browse and have lunch. This afternoon you will tour the Breakers Mansion, the grandest of Newport's summer "cottages". Built for Cornelius Vanderbilt II by architect Richard Morris Hunt, the house contains 70 rooms. It is elegantly decorated for the holidays. Later this afternoon, check into your hotel, Marriott Newport for your overnight stay. Dinner is included this evening.

Wednesday, November 30

After breakfast, you will continue your sightseeing of Newport's opulent palaces. Take the scenic ocean drive and pass by the mansions along famed Bellevue Ave. Today you visit Marble House, inspired by the Petit Trianon at Versailles. Over 7 million dollars was spent just for the marble in the house. Built for William Vanderbilt, he presented it to his wife for her 39th birthday. Then depart for a stop at Olde Mystic Village for lunch and shopping before returning home to your own decorated mansion.
