Explore the beautiful Finger Lakes of New York and stay for 3 nights in your lakefront hotel on Seneca Lake. Visit the Corning Glass Museum, Seneca Falls, the Women's Rights National Historic Park, Sonnenberg Gardens, Canandaigua and take a relaxing cruise on the lake. Also visit a local winery, sample the area's delicious cuisine and marvel at the spectacular scenery.

Itinerary

Tuesday, May 27

Depart this morning from Cedar Knolls and start your relaxing journey. Travel to the beautiful Finger Lakes region of New York. This afternoon visit the Glenora Wine Cellars for a tour of the winery and tasting.* The property has stunning views of surrounding area. Then motor on to Geneva, located on the shore of Seneca Lake, for your 3-night stay at 41 Lakefront Hotel. Dinner is included tonight. (D)

Wednesday, May 28

After your included breakfast, depart for Auburn, home to the Seward House Museum and learn about the man who purchased Alaska for the United States. After touring the home, you can visit the Equal Rights Heritage Center. Continue to Seneca Falls for a tour of the Women's Rights National Historic Park, that tells the story of the first Women's Rights Convention. It is a story of struggles for civil rights, human rights, and equality, global struggles that continues today. Return to the hotel this afternoon where you will be free to dine on your own at the hotel or one of the restaurants in town. (B).

Thursday, May 29

After an included breakfast, depart on a day of sightseeing in Canandaigua, "The Chosen Place". Take a tour of Sonnenberg Gardens & Mansion State Historic Park where you'll be surrounded by lush landscape, colorful vistas, and architectural treasures of nine formal gardens. Delight in the international flavor of horticultural design envisioned by garden founder Mary Clark Thompson nearly 100 years ago. This afternoon, board the Canandaigua Lady for cruise on the lake. This evening, depart for the New York State Culinary & Wine Center. Enjoy a 3-course dinner along with a chef demonstration. (B,D)

Friday, May 30

After breakfast, depart for the Corning Glass Museum and view the exhibits that chronicle 3,500 years of glass production with over 4000 items. You may also watch a glass making demonstration. There will be time for lunch before departing for home, arriving about 5:30 pm. (B)

Please note that the winery tour and tasting requires walking down stairs and through a working winery. Those with walkers or canes will not be allowed to participate.*
