Situated in approximately 160,000 acres of the Tioga State Forest lies the Grand Canyon of Pennsylvania. Approximately 47 miles long, 1,450 feet deep and 4,000 feet from rim to rim, the Canyon offers breathtaking views from spectacular lookouts. You will also have the opportunity to explore the quaint town of Wellsboro, tour Williamsport and take a cruise on the Susquehanna River. Join us on this wonderful tour of scenic delights.

Itinerary

Wednesday, September 17

Depart this morning and begin your exciting journey to the incredible Grand Canyon of Pennsylvania. First, stop in the historic town of Williamsport, home of Little League Baseball. Take a short tour of the city and see "Millionaires Row" and the restored homes of the timber barons. This afternoon, you will visit the Tabor Museum which houses an extensive collection of Williamsport history and an amazing model train collection. Then check into the Genetti Hotel, located in the heart of Williamsport. Dinner is included tonight.

Thursday, September 18

Following breakfast, depart for a scenic day of sightseeing. Travel into the Grand Canyon by horse-drawn wagon, pulled by powerful, beautiful, matched draught horses, the way folks did in days gone by. Travel in comfort in handcrafted, open sided, covered wagons, equipped with padded seats, rubber tires and shock absorbers designed to make this an enjoyable ride. Travel along the old railroad bed through Pine Creek Gorge and listen to tales of the Canyon from your local guide. Later, there will be time to explore the town of Wellsboro with its quaint shops and small town charm. This afternoon proceed to the rim of the Canyon at Leonard Harrison State Park. Enjoy amazing views of the area from the lookouts and learn about the flora and fauna. Return to your hotel this afternoon. Dinner is included at the Peter Herdic house, the former home of a local lumber baron and a short walk from the hotel.

Friday, September 19

After a leisurely breakfast, board the Hiawatha, a lovely Mississippi-style paddlewheel riverboat and cruise along the Susquehanna River. Learn about its importance in the timber industry. Then depart for home with great memories of a beautiful part of our country.
