

New York Botanical Gardens Holiday Train Show & Lunch on Arthur Ave.

Thursday, December 3, 2026

Visit the NY Botanical Gardens for the Holiday Train Show, New York City's favorite winter tradition. The timeless magic of rail travel fills NYBG with seasonal cheer as model trains travel over famous bridges and through familiar City settings, bringing nearly 200 twinkling landmark replicas to life under the glass of the warm and welcoming Enid A. Haupt Conservatory. Get up close to see these miniature masterpieces, each one meticulously crafted from plant parts like palm fronds, pinecones, and cinnamon sticks. Outside, explore a glowing mountain-scape brimming with even more trains and picture-perfect moments. The Holiday Train Show has sparked wonder in generations of visitors—and it's the City's best way to celebrate the season. Afterwards, we'll have lunch at Mario's on Arthur Avenue (the "real" Little Italy) before returning home.
