

Travel Trends

This year has seen a different trend in where to travel. The destination that has seen the biggest increase for 2017 is Iceland. This beautiful and scenic country is experiencing a boom in tourism. It has been on many travelers bucket list and it looks like they are checking it off this year. Many of the tours are sold out and we are already booking for 2018. One reason to travel there is to witness the Northern Lights, the spectacular light display that is visible from October to March. If interested in visiting Iceland, now is the time to book.

Tours to the United States and Canada have also been quite busy. The carryover from the 100th anniversary of the National Parks continues and trips through the Grand Canyon, Bryce, Zion and Grand Tetons have been very popular.

River Cruises in Europe have always been a great way to travel, but now you can enjoy this type of adventure in the United States too. There are many different itineraries along the Mississippi River or the Columbia River in the Pacific Northwest. If you have already cruised on the Danube, maybe it is time to try a river cruise closer to home.

Contact us if you have any questions regarding trips to these or any destination that interests you. Thanks for your support.
